

Come Create With Us!

The Johnson County Park & Recreation District is offering a variety of daytime Fine Arts classes for students who are homeschooled! Here's what's coming up:

Pottery Clay Creations (Ages 6-10)

Move over Play-Doh! Enjoy hands-on fun turning slabs of clay into endless possibilities. Fee includes clay, lead-free glazes, and kiln firing.

Roeland Park Community Center

Starts Jan. 12 9:00 am

Pottery Wheel Throwing (Ages 10-15)

Create pottery that is both functional and fun by learning basic wheel-throwing on an electric potter's wheel. Fee includes clay, lead-free glazes, and kiln firing.

Roeland Park Community Center

Starts Jan. 12 11:00 am

Paper Mache a New Way! (Ages 8-14)

Wear old clothes and get ready to think outside the balloon globe! Sculpt and paint paper mache into fun shapes you never thought possible! Call (913) 826-3163 for supply list.

826-3163 for supply list.

Prairie Village Community Center

Starts Jan. 20 11:00 am

Basic Beginning Painting (Ages 9-12)

Learn the various aspects of art and how to use the different paint mediums. Supply list available by calling (913) 826-3163.

Prairie Village Community Center

Starts Feb. 16 10:30 am

For more information or to register for these classes, visit www.jcprd.com or call Fine Arts Coordinator, Sarah Lenahan at 913.826.3163.

Any suggestions or feedback is appreciated!

The fun begins @ www.jcprd.com

JOHNSON COUNTY
PARK & RECREATION
DISTRICT

What do YOU do for fun?