

Is your college student on the path to a sales/marketing career? Does your college student need a job that will give them great experience?

The Green Van Dry Cleaning is hiring for 1-2 enthusiastic neighborhood canvassers/marketing reps. If your college student is looking for sales and marketing experience, this is the perfect job. These positions report directly to me, the company owner.

We are a family-owned dry cleaning company, and we are based in Overland Park. Our children are homeschooled, and we have hired homeschooled college students in the past with great success.

We have been in business for nine years, and we are known for our convenience, attention to detail, superb quality dry cleaning, and outstanding customer service. Our customers love us!

About the position:

Hours: part-time, flexible

Compensation: $10/hour plus bonus.

Characteristics of a successful neighborhood marketing rep:

- Outgoing
- Pleasant
- Persuasive
- Polite
- Honest
- Hard-working
- Professional appearance
- Results-oriented
- Enjoy talking with people face-to-face

When you contact me, please include a brief summary of your education/professional experience.

Thank you,
